

Frank Allegro is an independent rock singer / songwriter based in Miami. He released his self-titled Debut Album on iTunes in 2008 and is now releasing his 2nd album EP called Sacred Land (March/April 2014).

George Dione, Editor of www.Rock-is-Life.com writes...“Frank Allegro has all the makings of an independent rock star. He writes catchy, hook-laden choruses, his lyrics are relatable, and by looking at his CD cover you can see he's got the image. Frank Allegro has some strong music material that I'm willing to bet plays out phenomenal in a live concert setting”.

This award-winning artist played the growing rock club circuit in South Florida (Miami, Ft. Lauderdale & Hollywood) establishing a loyal fan base as lead singer of former rock bands Toxic Mojo and Exit 13...known for electrifying live shows! He now plays with a Miami-based rock called: THE USUAL FELLAS.

The son of a US Foreign Service Officer, Frank was born from a Nicaraguan mother and Sicilian father and raised in several countries throughout Africa, Europe, South America and also New Zealand. A grassroots activist & humanitarian at heart, Frank is a volunteer organizer of the Love the Everglades Movement and supporter of the Global Indigenous peoples' peaceful uprising.

The new EP album (Sacred Land) is a humble salute to unconquerable Miccosukee Tribe of Indians in Florida. The album contains harder rock sounds with tribal-percussion grooves driven by a fast and lively tempo. The spiritually-based album also contains a dance-pop rock song and a ballad.

“I love music by Aerosmith, Duran Duran, Red Hot Chili Peppers, Bob Marley, Velvet Revolver...I love the blues and rock and reggae and dance pop and bachata...I love the songs that birds sing and I love the sounds of laughter in children” says Frank Allegro.

Frank Allegro’s music is available for FREE on his website and also available for digital downloads worldwide on itunes, amazon mp3, rhapsody, lala, emusic, as well as amazon’s CD-On-Demand.

His long-term music career ambition is to perform live at Madison Square Garden in New York City, Wembley Stadium in London and the Tokyo Dome Stadium in Japan, (including millions of children) to help re-establish the spiritual power and positive energy of music, ultimately leading to everlasting peace and unity on earth.

Contact:

www.frankallegro.com

facebook.com/frankallegromusic

frankallegro@gmail.com

Tel. 305.781.6620